Preferred Installation Network Agreement

This Preferred Installation Network Agreement (the "Agreement") is effective on the date on which you accept it (the "Effective Date") by and between SkyeVantage…powered by The Roof Resource Franchising, Inc., a Michigan corporation ("TRR") and Your Insurance Claims Network, llc ("you" or the "Contractor"). You agree to abide by the terms of this Agreement, which includes and incorporates conditions for what constitutes a "Client" as each may be updated from time to time.

A. TRR operates solely as a technology platform, referral facilitator, and administrative coordination service. TRR is not a roofing contractor, construction company, general contractor, subcontractor, or construction manager.

B. TRR does not inspect, approve, verify, or accept Contractor's work for quality, safety, or code compliance. Any photographs, checklists, or documentation collected by TRR are for platform recordkeeping and customer transparency only and shall not be deemed inspection, approval, or acceptance of work. All construction-related decisions, means, methods, techniques, sequencing, staffing, supervision, safety, and workmanship are the sole and exclusive responsibility of Contractor.

C. TRR refers, on a nonexclusive basis as determined in its sole discretion and subject to the terms of this Agreement, homeowners seeking roof replacement services ("Clients") to licensed and insured contractors to perform such services (the "Network") who are part of the Network at TRR's discretion and subject to and in accordance with this Agreement. TRR does not select a contractor on behalf of any Client and does not guarantee that any Client will select Contractor.

The services to be performed ("Services") by Contractor are set forth in a Proposal Document ("Proposal") generated through the Platform for administrative, coordination, and pricing-reference purposes only. The Proposal does not constitute a construction contract, scope of work agreement, or construction directive by TRR. Any binding construction agreement exists solely between Contractor and Client. The contractor provided to the Client from the Network provides such Services to such Client, delivers to such Client an invoice for the Services, and receives payment for such services directly from the Client. Additionally, Contractor provides the warranty to the Client.

D. Contractor desires to be a member of the Network, subject to and in accordance with, this Agreement.

1. Agreement to Terms and Conditions. Contractor hereby agrees to abide by, and perform Services in compliance with, this Agreement and any other document referenced herein, including, but not limited to a Proposal.

2. Licensing Requirements. Contractor certifies, represents and warrants to TRR that it and any service providers engaged by Contractor in any capacity to perform the Services each have all licenses, insurance (including workers compensation), and other credentials required by law and necessary or appropriate for Contractor to operate its business and to provide the Services to Clients who select Contractor.

3. Services and Fees/Costs. Contractor agrees to provide all Services set forth on a Proposal for each Client selecting Contractor to perform the Services and to charge such Client for the Services at the rates set forth on Exhibit A, and Exhibit B (if applicable) attached to this Agreement. Any other costs in excess of the costs set forth on a Proposal based on rates set forth on Exhibit A, and Exhibit B (if applicable) attached to this Agreement, including for additional materials subsequently identified as necessary to complete the Services to a Client, proposed by Contractor must be approved by the Client prior to purchasing and or installing such materials or providing related services. Contractor will use its resources to obtain the necessary agreed upon materials and reflect the additional agreed upon amounts on the invoice delivered to the Client upon completing the Services. Contractor acknowledges and agrees that the membership by Contractor in the Network does not constitute a relationship between the parties other than TRR's potential referral of Client Opportunities to Contractor.

4. Exclusivity; No Guaranty. Contractor understands that this Agreement is not exclusive, any number of contractors providing the same or similar services to the services provided by Contractor may be a part of the Network, and that TRR may have similar agreements with other parties and/or otherwise refer Clients to other parties who perform the same or similar services as Contractor. Contractor acknowledges and understands that Contractor is not guaranteed to receive Client Opportunities and TRR is under no obligation to provide Client Opportunities to Contractor and is not guaranteed to be retained by a Client and no Client is under any to retain services of any nature from Contractor.

5. Client Referrals. In exchange for receiving referrals for Clients from TRR, Contractor agrees to perform all Services for Clients with the highest standards of integrity and honesty and represents, warrants, and guarantees that all work will comply with all laws, codes, and administrative rules applicable to such Services and shall pass all inspections applicable to the Services, in process or as completed. Contractor guaranties the performance of the Services provided to each Client in accordance with this Agreement, the Proposal, and the warranties governing such Services.

6. Responsibilities of Contractor. Contractor agrees and understands that Contractor and TRR are not in a joint venture, partnership, contractor, agency or employment relationship. Nothing in this Agreement shall be interpreted as granting TRR control over construction means or methods. Accordingly:

a. Contractor will refer to the Preferred Installation Network (PIN) Job Selection & Attic Inspection Review Guidelines to choose their installation projects.

b. Contractor has no power or authority to incur any debt, obligation, or liability on behalf of TRR and TRR has no power or authority to incur debt, obligation, or liability on behalf of Contractor;

c. Contractor acknowledges that it is not entitled to coverage under TRR welfare, medical, or dental plans; life or disability insurance plans;

d. TRR will not, and has no obligation to, provide insurance of any nature, including worker's compensation, general liability or other coverage, to or for Contractor or its employees or sub-contractors;

e. Contractor assumes sole liability for and will pay all taxes for all costs or fees charged to Client or received from Client;

f. TRR is not responsible for payment to Contractor for any work performed by Contractor. Once Contractor receives the contact information for a Client Opportunity, it is Contractor's sole responsibility to contract with the Client at the prices as agreed below, to perform the Services as agreed and collect payment from the Client directly. t. Contractor will refer to Exhibit C for TRR Onboarding Checklist requirements. *This must be filled out with Zip Codes and paperwork must be received before any work commences.

Nothing in this Agreement, any Proposal, branding, platform standards, documentation, or administrative coordination shall be construed as creating any duty, control, or construction responsibility on the part of the SkyeVantage Parties.

7. Indemnity. Notwithstanding a termination of this Agreement by either party to this Agreement or the termination or expiration of this Agreement, if applicable, Contractor hereby indemnifies, defends, and holds harmless TRR, its affiliates and their respective owners, managers, directors, officers, employees, agents, successors and assigns from all claims, actions, allegations, or other actions, even if not filed, made against any such parties regarding Contractor of any nature and subject matter, including, but not limited to, Contractor's work, warranties, employees, subcontractors, licensure, insurance matters, services of any nature to a Client, breach of this Agreement or any other agreement entered into by Contractor, or collection matters. Contractor will pay for all costs and expenses related to said claims, including, but not limited to, actual attorney's fees and costs, directly and without demand. At no time shall TRR be responsible to Contractor, a Client, or any other party for any fees, costs, defense or damages related to the above claims. Contractor's insurance shall apply on a primary and non-contributory basis. Contractor waives any right of subrogation against TRR. Contractor's insurance shall apply on a primary and non-contributory basis. Contractor waives any right of subrogation against TRR. The terms of this Section shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

a. Contractor acknowledges and agrees that SkyeVantage…powered by The Roof Resource Franchising, Inc., together with its affiliates, parents, subsidiaries, franchisees, licensees, platform administrators, and each of their respective owners, members, managers, officers, directors, employees, agents, and representatives (collectively, the "SkyeVantage Parties"), have no responsibility for, and shall have no liability whatsoever arising out of or related to, any construction work, installation services, jobsite conditions, safety practices, workmanship, materials, code compliance, inspections, permits, warranties, delays, defects, injuries, property damage, or losses of any kind associated with any project performed by Contractor. claims are asserted by a Client, third party, governmental authority, insurer, employee, subcontractor, or any other person or entity, and shall survive termination or expiration of this Agreement.

8. Termination. This Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and shall continue in full force and effect until terminated by either party upon written notice to the other party; should Contractor refuse to honor the terms of the fees and costs with a Client as provided in this Agreement, this Contract shall immediately terminate. Sections 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 12 of this Agreement and any other provision of this Agreement by its terms, including the standards governing Contractor's Services such as warranties as required hereunder for the benefit of any Client, shall survive a termination, expiration, or cancellation of this Agreement. The termination shall not affect (a) the liability of any party for any prior breach of any provision hereof, (b) any provision that survives the termination of this Agreement; or (c) Contractor's obligations to a Client, including, but not limited to, completing any work in progress for a Client at the time of such termination. This Agreement supersedes and replaces any and all prior or contemporaneous contractor agreements, understandings, negotiations, or representations, whether written or oral, previously entered into between the parties relating to the same subject matter. Upon execution of this Agreement, all prior versions of contractor agreements between the parties shall be deemed terminated and of no further force or effect.

9. Contractor acknowledges this Agreement does not constitute a franchise, business opportunity, dealership, or joint enterprise under federal or state law. Contractor has not paid and is not required to pay any fee for the right to operate a business under a trademarked system, and TRR does not exercise operational control as defined under franchise regulations.

10. In no event shall TRR be liable for indirect, incidental, consequential, special, or punitive damages, including loss of profits, arising from or related to Contractor's services, even if advised of the possibility of such damages. No matter what theory you try - negligence, vicarious liability, agency, joint venture, franchise, platform, referral - SkyeVantage and all their affiliates are not liable.

11. Non-Disclosure and Confidentiality Agreement. To receive details related to TRR, any Client, and/or a Client Opportunity, Contractor agrees to the restrictions set forth in this Section. All Confidential Information, as defined below, shall be maintained by Contractor and its affiliates, successors and assigns, and entities currently formed or to be formed by the undersigned Contractor and their respective owners, managers, directors, officers, employees, representatives, agents, successors and assigns (jointly and severally, a "Recipient") in the strictest confidence and not use any Confidential Information for any purpose other than for the benefit of TRR or a Client.

a. Definition of Confidential Information The term "Confidential Information" means all non-public information (irrespective of when received by the Recipient or the form of communication) that is produced and/or furnished by TRR to Recipient, produced and/or furnished by Recipient, or otherwise in Recipient's possession or within Recipient's knowledge, whether written, electronic, oral, or any other medium concerning any aspect of TRR, the Network, any member of the Network, a Client Opportunity, or a Client, TRR's business, affairs of TRR, including without limitation, any information or material pertaining to: purchasing and providing the Services or any other similar services related thereto, including, but not limited to, installing roofs, sales and or marketing information, manufacturing and installation requirements, permits, licensure and licensure requirements, designs, customer lists, data, databases, rebates, pricing, business platforms and concepts, methods, applications, processes, technology, know-how, specifications, Proposals, drawings, techniques, TRR's financials and tax information, materials, modifications to designs or plans, or franchising information or documentation, whether or not reduced to tangible form. All Confidential Information shall be deemed and considered confidential even if not marked or designated as "Confidential" or "Proprietary." Confidential Information may exist in one or more forms, including, but not limited to, electronic or optical data storage and retrieval mechanisms regardless of whether any such information is protected by applicable trade secret or similar laws. Confidential Information also includes any notes, analyses, compilations, pricing, invoices, studies, data, databases, or other material or documents prepared by Recipient which contain, reflect, or are based, in whole or in part, on the Confidential Information. Contractor and its Representatives do not acquire any benefits or rights as a result of access to the Confidential Information, including any rights of reliance, distribution or discussion.

b. Exceptions to Confidential Information. Confidential Information does not include information that was available to the public prior to Recipient's receipt of the Confidential Information or subsequently becomes available to the public other than through a disclosure in violation of this Agreement by the Recipient, or disclosure by another recipient or its representatives in violation of this Agreement or an agreement entered into separate from this Agreement, provided such information is not proprietary to TRR's business, in which case, notwithstanding this exception, it is deemed Confidential Information.

c. Use of Confidential Information. Contractor and its Representatives do not acquire any benefits or rights as a result of access to the Confidential Information, inclusive of rights of reliance, distribution or discussion. The Recipient will keep the Confidential Information confidential and inform all Representatives (defined below) who are made aware of the Confidential Information (in any way) of the terms and conditions agreed to in this Section. The Recipient agrees the Confidential Information shall be used only for the purpose of evaluating, negotiating and, if the Client Opportunity becomes a Client, providing the Services to such Client. Recipient shall not use, disclose, discuss, make reference to, outside of authorized representatives of TRR, or reverse engineer any Confidential Information (or information derived therefrom) that has been or will be disclosed to Recipient or any other Recipient Party or which such party receives otherwise, for any purpose, except such information that Recipient can show by written records is generally available, as a whole, to the public at the time of the initial disclosure to, or receipt by, a Recipient Party, having been lawfully and independently obtained. Recipient will not copy any Confidential Information and will return all Confidential Information to TRR within 24 hours of receiving written requests of TRR. Recipient agrees that TRR can conduct an audit of Recipient during the existence of Contractor's membership in the Network and for three years thereafter, at the discretion and expense of TRR to ensure nothing disclosed in accordance with this Agreement has been impermissibly incorporated into the business model of a Recipient party. If such audit reflects, in TRR's or its designee's sole discretion, that a Recipient Party has breached this Agreement, in addition to all other remedies available to TRR, each Recipient shall (i) immediately cease and desist from engaging in activities of any nature that are in breach of this Agreement; (ii) return any Confidential Information to TRR; and (iii) pay to TRR all income generated by a Recipient Party or a representative during such time the breach occurred. Notwithstanding any particular term governing any provision of this Agreement, any trade secrets or proprietary information of TRR shall be held in confidence by Recipient and its Representatives indefinitely.

d. The Recipient may, however, disclose the Confidential Information to its Representatives whom the Recipient determines in good faith reasonably need to know the information for the purpose of evaluating a possible Client Opportunity; provided, however, that the Recipient (i) first informs such Representatives receiving the Confidential Information of the confidential nature thereof and of the obligations imposed under this Agreement, and (ii) causes such Representatives to treat the Confidential Information confidentially in accordance with this Agreement and not to use it other than in connection with its evaluation of the Client Opportunity and the performance of the Services to the Client. Recipient acknowledges and agrees that it shall be responsible for any of such Representatives' improper use of the Confidential Information (including without limitation by such Representatives who, subsequent to the first date of disclosure of Confidential Information hereunder, become former Representatives). As used in this Agreement, any affiliate, director, officer, employee, accountant, attorney, consultant, lender, equity provider, co-bidder, consultant, law firm, financial advisor, investment banking firm, or other non-employee, without limitation, shall be known as a "Representative." Upon the request of TRR, the Recipient shall disclose in writing the name of any Representatives that have received Confidential Information.

e. Non-Disclosure. Without the prior written consent of TRR as determined in its sole discretion, the Recipient and its Representatives shall not disclose to any other person or entity (i) the existence of this Agreement, or the existence or content of the Confidential Information, or (ii) that any solicitation, discussions or negotiations relating to a possible Client Opportunity are taking place or have taken place, or (iii) any of the terms, conditions or other facts with respect to any such discussions or negotiations or a possible Client Opportunity (including the status thereof). The Recipient agrees via this paragraph that it shall not directly or indirectly solicit information about (through any source), nor engage in any discussions with, other parties who are believed to be or may reasonably be evaluating the same opportunity for any purpose.

f. Termination. TRR may elect at any time to terminate Recipient's further access to Confidential Information and/or Contractor's participation in the Network. The Recipient agrees that upon any such termination, or if Recipient elects to end its evaluation of a Client Opportunity, Recipient shall, and shall cause its Representatives to, immediately destroy or permanently delete, as applicable, all Confidential Information, including any copies, extracts or other reproductions in whole or in part. Such destruction and deletion will be certified in writing by the Recipient within five (5) calendar days of the delivery of a notice requesting such certification. The termination of this Agreement shall not affect the confidentiality obligations of Recipient and its Representatives hereunder with respect to such information.

g. Required Disclosure. If the Recipient or its Representatives are required (by court order, interrogatories, requests for information, subpoena or otherwise as part of any court order or mandated legal process) to disclose any Confidential Information, the Recipient will promptly, but in no event later than forty-eight (48) hours after receiving such court order, interrogatory, request or subpoena, provide TRR written notice of such request(s) so that TRR may seek an appropriate protective order and/or consider waiving the Recipient's compliance with the provisions of this Agreement. If, failing the entry of a protective order or the receipt of a waiver hereunder, the Recipient or its Representatives are, in the opinion of the Recipient's or its Representatives' counsel, as the case may be, compelled to disclose any Confidential Information, the Recipient or its Representative, as applicable, may disclose only that portion of the Confidential Information as is legally required without liability hereunder, as long as the Recipient or its Representative, as applicable, exercises such party's reasonable best efforts to obtain assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded such information and otherwise uses its reasonable best efforts to preserve the confidentiality of the other Confidential Information.

h. Communications. During the course of the Recipient's evaluation of a Client Opportunity and/or providing Services, the Recipient and its Representatives agree they shall not initiate or maintain contact with any officer, director, employee, security holder or any other person or entity having a business relationship with TRR Parties regarding the business, operations or prospects of TRR Parties, except (a) with the express written consent of TRR in its sole discretion and (b) for Franchise Opportunities and communications in the ordinary course of business in which no Confidential Information is disclosed. Unless otherwise agreed to by TRR, all (i) communications regarding any possible Franchise Opportunity or related definitive franchise agreement, (ii) requests for additional information, and (iii) discussions or questions regarding procedures in connection with any possible Franchise Opportunity shall be submitted or directed to TRR.

i. Non Solicitation. For a period commencing on the Effective Date and ending on the later of two (2) years following (i) the Effective Date; (ii) the date upon which Contractor collects payment for the last Client for which Contractor renders the Services or similar services; or (iii) date of termination of this Agreement, neither the Recipient nor its Representatives will, directly or indirectly, solicit for employment or hire any employee who is identified or introduced through the evaluation process who (i) works for TRR or its affiliates, or (ii) has otherwise provided services to TRR or its affiliated entities.

j. Contractor acknowledges and understands that when on a project, they are representatives of the PIN. From time to time, many homeowners in the neighborhoods that the Contractor is working in, may be approached to get a quote on roofing. When this occurs, the PIN Contractor must direct the prospect to TRR Corporate office for a proper proposal. It is a direct violation of this agreement for a PIN Contractor to quote a homeowner directly without expressed written permission from Corporate. No Warranty or Accuracy; Client Opportunity; Proposal. TRR makes no representations or warranties of any kind or nature with respect to Confidential Information, a Client Opportunity, a Client, a Proposal, Contractor's Services, or services rendered by other members of the Network. The Recipient acknowledges and agrees TRR shall establish and may at any time change or modify any process or procedure with respect to a possible Client Opportunity or the Network as TRR determines in its sole and complete discretion (including, without limitation, presenting Client Opportunities to any other party).

12. Code of Ethics for TRR Preferred Installation Network:

As a member of the TRR Preferred Installation Network (PIN), the work of each contractor reflects on the group as a whole. All members of the TRR PIN agree to follow this Code of Ethics for their work in this community, and to provide their best efforts to every TRR Franchisee.

On behalf of myself and my company, we agree to:

- RESPECT the consumer and their home by keeping the workplace clean and safe and communicating with the consumer on a regular basis to ensure all expectations are managed properly and that their experience is hassle-free.
- PROVIDE the best contracting/home service value possible.
- PROVIDE a timely response to items covered under warranty.

Docusign Envelope ID: 1AC1D434-62D4-896F-805F-3C7D9D833F5A

- PROTECT the consumer using high-quality materials and business practices backed by integrity and service.

13. Entire Agreement. This Agreement represents the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement between the parties to this Agreement and terminates and supersedes all prior understandings or agreements with respect to such matters. This Agreement may be amended only in writing signed by both parties.

14. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of Michigan, without giving effect to principles of conflicts of law.

15. Dispute Resolution. In the event of any controversy or claim arising from or related to this Agreement or any document referenced in this Agreement, its performance or its interpretation, TRR and Contractor will in good faith attempt to resolve the dispute within a reasonable period among themselves. Failing such attempt, any such controversy or claim will be settled by one of the following as determined by TRR in its sole and complete discretion: (i) litigation, (ii) mediation, or (iii) arbitration in Oakland County, in the State of Michigan. In the event a controversy or claim is subject to mediation or arbitration, TRR and Contractor shall, unless otherwise determined through such process, be equally responsible for the fees and costs for the mediation or arbitration (provided, however, each party shall solely be responsible for the fees and costs for such party's representation by counsel). The terms of this Section shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

16. Injunctive Relief. Money damages would not be a sufficient remedy for any breach of this Agreement and TRR will be entitled to specific performance and injunctive or other equitable relief as a remedy for any breach of this Agreement. The Recipient agrees to waive any requirement for the security or posting of any bond in connection with such remedy. Such remedy shall not be deemed to be the exclusive remedy for breach of this Agreement but will be in addition to all other remedies available at law or equity to TRR. In addition, TRR shall be entitled to recover from Recipient all legal fees and costs associated with enforcing this Agreement.

14. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which will be deemed to be an original copy of this Agreement, and both of which, when taken together, will be deemed to constitute one and the same Agreement.

15. Electronic Signature. The parties agree that electronic signatures, whether digital or encrypted, of the parties included in this Agreement are intended to authenticate this Agreement and to have the same force and effect as manual signatures.

Skylight Measurement & Responsibility Policy

When a Roofing Partner is responsible for measuring an existing skylight for replacement or new installation, the accuracy of those measurements is critical.

If a custom-sized skylight is ordered based on the measurements provided by the Roofing Partner, and the skylight is found to be incorrect or unusable due to inaccurate measurements, the Roofing Partner will assume full responsibility for:

- The cost of the incorrect skylight, and
- The cost of ordering the correct replacement unit, including any associated shipping or restocking fees.

To avoid errors, all skylight measurements must be verified twice and documented in the job file, including clear photos and dimension notes before submission.

PERMIT REGULATIONS

Policy on Roofing Installations and Permit Requirements
TRR enforces a zero-tolerance policy regarding roofing installations conducted without obtaining all required permits. All permits must be secured and issued at least 24 hours prior to the commencement of any roof installation, in strict compliance with the regulations of the local building department and city ordinances.

Non-Compliance Consequences
Failure to obtain and provide issued permits before the scheduled installation will result in the immediate cancellation of the installation without exception. Any delays or rescheduling caused by missing or incomplete documentation will be the responsibility of the installation company, including all associated costs incurred.

Termination for Repeated Non-Compliance
Repeated violations of this policy may result in the termination of the business relationship between TRR and Contractor, at the sole discretion of TRR. Such termination will occur without prejudice and based on a documented pattern of infractions. This policy is enacted to ensure compliance with legal and regulatory requirements and to uphold the professional standards of TRR and its partners.

EXHIBIT C
POLICY ON ADDITIONAL WORK FROM TRR CUSTOMERS

In the event the installation company receives additional work from a customer referred by TRR—such as windows, siding, gutters, landscaping, interior, or exterior projects—TRR shall be entitled to a referral fee equal to 5% of the total job value. This referral fee is due and payable upon receipt of the final payment by the contractor for the completed project. This ensures a fair and equitable partnership and acknowledgment of TRR's role in facilitating the customer relationship.

EXHIBIT D

Service Completion Timelines and Partner Program Policy

To ensure the highest level of service for our customers, all issued services must be addressed within seven (7) days of issuance. Failure to complete or resolve these services within the specified timeframe will result in the suspension of new installation scheduling until all outstanding services are resolved.

Furthermore, TRR reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to review and assess a vendor's continued participation in our partner program. All communications regarding services will be sent via email/text/or phone call and will include as much information as possible to facilitate efficient resolution. If a pattern of unresolved or delayed services is identified and is deemed to negatively impact our operational standards, the vendor may be removed from the program.

1. Business Opportunity. To explore a business relationship between TRR and Recipient in which Recipient could engage in a valuable business opportunity ("Business Opportunity"), TRR may, at its discretion, disclose to Recipient Confidential Information (as defined below) and, in exchange for such disclosure, Recipient agrees to maintain the Confidential Information in the strictest confidence and be bound by the following terms and conditions.
